

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE
MEETING MINUTES, SEPTEMBER 9, 2026

The meeting was called to order at 7:10 p.m.

The Invocation was led by Linda Herring; the Pledge of Allegiance was recited and Jim Penney read the Republican Creed.

A quorum was established, along with approval of the agenda, treasurer report and July meeting minutes.

There were no visitors or speakers.

There were no new membership applications.

The Chairman reported that 100 voters in Northumberland County are getting mail-in ballots. The RPV asks that we contact these voters to remind them to vote.

There was some discussion about the fact that no political propaganda was being allowed at the Farmer's Market. The Chairman wanted to know the name of the person who is now in charge of the Tavern activities. Dolores Meo volunteered to find out and report back to him (which she did).

Do we need to donate to Rob Wittman? We could probably give to Bert Mizusawa if he responds to our requests for communication.

Frank DiGiovanni is running for the school board. We will invite him to our next meeting.

There are yard signs available to take home, reading: "Vote No on All 3", referring to the proposed amendments in the coming election.

Vice-Chairman Report: Mr. Fisher suggested that we invite Frank DiGiovanni to come to our meeting.

Rodger Evans, reporting on the Oyster Roast, gave a short rundown of where things stand. Some kind of music will be available in the absence of Mike Baughan.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:05.

Respectfully submitted,

Dolores Meo
Secretary
